

Virginia Withdraws Invitation to Negro

NEW YORK, April 11 (AP)—An invitation to a prominent New York Negro to attend a dinner in Richmond for "distinguished Virginians" has been withdrawn as "a mistake."

He is Dr. Clifton B. Powell, a physician and publisher of the Amsterdam News in Harlem, who was born in Newport News, Va., in 1894.

Powell's secretary, Miss E. M. Holden, said yesterday that the invitation had been received and accepted a week ago. Last Tuesday, she said, a telegram came requesting that the invitation be returned.

Powell said today he would attend the dinner unless Gov. Thomas B. Stanley withdraws his invitation, the United Press reported.

Powell said the invitation was signed by the Virginia Governor.

A telegram that arrived Tuesday was signed by Richard F. Gillif, director of activities of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce. Powell said. He added that he would not consider disregarding the invitation until notified by Stanley to do so.

The invitation, for a dinner May 17, was described as part of a celebration of the 350th anniversary of the first permanent English settlement in America at Jamestown.

In Richmond, Vernon Kemp, executive director of the Chamber of Commerce, said an invitation list of some 600 persons had been compiled from information supplied by local chambers of commerce.
